OREGON'S MT. BACHELOR OPENS FOR 50TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON Latest updates available at www.mtbachelor.com

(Bend, Ore) – This weekend's long-awaited weather system produced a growing storm total of 23 inches at the base Mt. Bachelor. The Mountain is now offering terrain serviced by Pine Marten Express and Sunshine Accelerator lifts plus an early season terrain park. Terrain offerings will continue to be expanded as conditions allow in preparation for Holiday skiers and riders.

Nordic beginner and intermediate trails are now open. Track packing and grooming has been constant in both Nordic and Alpine areas. Foot-powered tubing sessions start today for $5.

"Mt. Bachelor is very excited to be opening. We are still under early season snow conditions so we advise everybody to please look before you leap number 1, and number 2 stay on the open runs. We want everyone to have a long and happy winter. So enjoy the first day and many more to come", says Ski Patrol Manager Curtis Norsen.

The Dirksen Derby fundraiser is underway opening day. An impressive lineup of talent will be competing on a course adjacent to the Thunderbird run. Spectators are welcome and participants encouraged. Registration is $25 and all proceeds benefit Tyler Ecklund and Cole Ortega.

Mt. Bachelor Ski and Sport is having a significant sale offering up to 50% off last year's gear and apparel plus additional discounts for season pass holders including 25% off on new 2009 skis, snowboards, boots and bindings. West Village Rentals and Repair services are open.

Guests can enjoy fare from Cocoa's and the Clearing Rock Bar and Pinnacles Café in West Village. Pinnacles, offering smoothies, pastries and gourmet coffee drinks will be open at the West Village Lodge and in the Ski and Sport shop.
